2012 FACULTY OF BUSINESS AND LAW RESEARCH RETREAT

20th June 2012 Springfield campus (with video conference)

Creating a Sustainable Scholarly Community

Call for papers, research abstracts, posters and workshop proposals themed to Regional Development: Connectedness, Business and Learning

The Faculty of Business and Law Springfield and the School of Management and Marketing invites you to submit recent research, short papers, projects, poster and abstracts for the midyear research retreat. Each submission will require a contributor to present a short presentation on the paper. The program will aim to provide streams of research discussion themed around Regional Development: Connectedness, Business and Learning, Education and Pedagogy and Change. The research day will aim to collate the best research papers into a special issue of the International Journal of Organizational Behavior: titled Regional Development: Connectedness, Business and Learning. Please submit your work for inclusion in proceedings no later than the 1st of June 2012. The conference papers should be no more than 5 pages single spaced (3000 words), extended abstracts and short think pieces should be no more than 1000 words. The Style guide can be downloaded from: http://www.usq.edu.au/business-law/research/ijob. Please submit your papers to Di Hall at Dianne.hall@usq.edu.au, Enquiries to Associate Professor Margee Hume Margee.hume@usq.edu.au and Di Hall. All papers will be peer reviewed with papers identified for the special issue subject to further peer reviewed and development to 4000-6000 words or 10 pages.

Please encourage your students to submit and attend.
