SYNOPSIS

This course is intended to introduce students to a range of influential political and economic ideas. These ideas are the basis for modern political and personal debates. They are also the basis for contemporary political, economic and social arrangements. Students are in effect learning about the ideas that dominate our societies. The course is suitable for students from all discipline areas and does not require formal prior education in politics and economics. It is a course for those interested in discussion, ideas and debates, and who have some capacity for critical analysis.

OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student should be able to:

- Discuss political concepts and their application;
- Examine major ideologies;
- Analyse the influence of major ideologies on political and economic systems.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- 1 To be assured of a passing grade in this unit students will be required to obtain at least 50% for the assignments in aggregate and at least 50% in the final examination and an overall mark of 50%. Final grades for the unit will be determined by the addition of the marks obtained in each assessment item, weighted as in the Assessment Details and by considering the students' level of achievement of the objectives of the unit. To be assured of a B grade students will be required to obtain an overall mark of 65%. To be assured of an A grade students will be required to obtain an overall mark of 75%. To be assured of an HD grade students will be required to obtain an overall mark of 85%.
- 2 The due date of an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the University, and is normally that defined in the relevant course specification. The onus is on the student to provide, if requested, proof of date of despatch.
- 3 Students should organise their affairs to ensure that they meet due dates for all assignments. Extensions will be granted only under exceptional extenuating circumstances, normally involving a significant medical condition.
- 4 Students may apply for an assignment extension either by application through DEC before the due date or by application with the submitted assignment after the due date. Such applications should be in writing and include supporting documentary evidence. The authority for granting extensions rests with the relevant Course Leader.
- 5 All assignments despatched after due dates without appropriate extension approvals or after approved extension dates will be penalised up to a maximum 20% of the assigned mark per work day.
- 6 Students must retain a copy of all assignments which must be provided if/when required by the Course Leader.

- 7 Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks to questions testing those topics in an examination paper.
