PRE-REQUISITES

SYNOPSIS

This course seeks to introduce students to the law as it relates to the Internet and in particular e-commerce. It will examine the most problematic areas from a legal point of view. These areas include consumer protection, digital and electronic signatures, Internet banking, copyright, trademarks, privacy, censorship and also taxation. In each area the application of existing legal principles to e-commerce as well as the newly developed 'cyberlaw' principles will be examined. In some of these areas of law the growth in e-commerce has outstripped the growth in the law. In these areas we will identify the legal issues and look at any proposed laws that seek to clarify these new issues.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- explain the general legal issues that have arisen as a result of the establishment and growth of e-commerce;
- apply the existing legislation and case law that is relevant to e-commerce to given case studies;
- evaluate the proposed Australian legislation that will impact on e-commerce;
- describe developments in e-commerce law in jurisdictions outside Australia;
- demonstrate satisfactory skills in communication.

The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the Examiner. (ii) Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be produced within 24 hours if required by the Examiner. (iii) The Examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances. If students submit assignments after the due date and wish to claim extenuating circumstances then they shall provide validated documentary evidence with the assignment, explaining the circumstances. The Examiner shall consider the statement accompanying a late assignment and decide on the outcome. (iv) Assignments are to be submitted with the appropriate assignment cover. (v) The Examiner will normally only accept assessments that have been written, typed or printed on paper-based media. (vi) In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, such as a Show holiday, the due date for the assignment will be the next day. Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the Examiner's convenience.

- 2 Course Weightings: Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper. The examination may test material already tested in assignments.
- 3 Deferred Work: Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation.
