SYNOPSIS

Students will be introduced to the basics of public relations writing including the concepts of good writing, techniques for persuasive writing and finding and generating newsworthy information. They will study how to write media releases for the print and electronic media, feature articles, backgrounders, brochures, newsletters and speeches. The major emphasis of the course is on developing practical public relations skills.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students will demonstrate:

- a knowledge of the range of areas in which public relations writing skills may be employed;
- a thorough understanding of the written word as a tool of effective, symmetrical communication;
- expertise in the standard methods of writing for specific audiences using various mediums and channels including the news and other media;
- the ability to analyse and critique various forms of public relations writing;
- the ability to plan and develop a major writing project for a particular purpose and market within an organisational context for particular audiences/publics.
