RATIONALE

Creating artworks is a fundamental component of practical studies in the Visual Arts. At level 1 students are expected to continue to work broadly across a number of studio areas but narrow their involvement to 3 or more areas being Life/General Drawing, Painting, Printmaking, Ceramics, Sculpture, Textiles and Gallery Studies. Studio practice will be underpinned by history and theory lectures and tutorials.

SYNOPSIS

In this course students select at least 3 workshops which range across available studios and Gallery Studies. Workshops consist of lectures, demonstrations, and practice conducted each week. Drawings will accompany projects/folios submitted in each workshop. Practice will be underpinned by associated courses in history and theory.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. demonstrate handskills, knowledge of materials and their application through practice in selected areas;
2. show increased understanding of the elements necessary for expanding perception and the quality of visual expression;

3. demonstrate greater understanding of the aesthetic and historical background to their preferred studies;
4. exercise personal creative potential through deeper involvement in chosen areas of practice;
5. show an ability to critically evaluate individual creative products and work by other artists. In addition, students will have increased personal experience of methods, procedures and approaches possible in the production of works.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

- 9 Assessment will be by a panel of those Visual Arts staff who have had prime responsibility for teaching each of the disciplines studied. Their written comments will be accessible by students after the assessment process is finished and the results published. A student who has not satisfactorily completed the work for one of the studio areas may be awarded a make up (IM) result if the rest of the submission is sufficiently good, however a student who has not satisfactorily completed the work for two or more studio areas will fail.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- 1 Option students have the choice of undertaking two or three concurrent series of workshops depending on their timetable. If unable to undertake more than two areas a practical project will be undertaken in lieu of the third area in consultation with studio staff who will ensure that the time devoted to it equates with time spent by Visual Arts major students.
