RATIONALE

Nurses need to analyse historical events that have had an impact on the discipline of nursing and the forces that have shaped the profession of nursing. Knowledge of legal and ethical principles is necessary to prepare the nurse for professional practice.

SYNOPSIS

This course consists of three modules - Law, Ethics and Practice. The course explores contemporary theories to analyse the continuing debate about the essence of nursing. It discusses history and theories of nursing and also examines legal, ethical and practice issues that may confront the nurse. The course also explores contemporary issues in health care and how they affect the practice of nursing in Australia.

OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course students will be able to:

1. discuss and review the historical factors which have influenced the evolution of nursing;
2. discuss and debate how theories influence nursing practice;
3. differentiate between a nursing model and a nursing theory;
4. apply legal principles to nursing and related health care situations;
5. apply ethical principles to nursing and related health care situations;
6. explore patient/client issues that can pose as ethical dilemmas;
7. use ethical decision-making models in nursing and related health care situations; and
8. examine the contemporary role of the nurse in health care.
