RATIONALE

This course exists to satisfy need for flexibility within a programme in order to cater for the widely varying interests and chosen specializations of students.

SYNOPSIS

This course provides the opportunity for a student to pursue an area of study which will complement the other studies in their program. Typically the course will consist of specialized investigations extending knowledge and skills in a certain area. The studies could involve, for example, a directed reading course, an extension to a project (where appropriate), or some other approved activity which would complement the student's studies.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students should be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge and skills in the complementary study area.
