RATIONALE

Since 1988 a need has been recognised nationally and within this University for communication skills prior to degree entry. The Preparatory Studies program of CLLT focuses on strategies basic to independent assignment writing habits. International students, whose learning strategies have previously been acquired in languages other than English, need to adapt their previous knowledge to the range of performance strategies in communication skills expected by higher education institutions in Australia.

SYNOPSIS

In the course students analyse an assignment question and follow a series of steps towards completing a report and an essay. Note making from texts, scripts and video develop reading and listening skills. Comprehensible communication of a theme in academic English is required by the course.

OBJECTIVES

At the successful completion of this course, students will be able to perform the following tasks in English:

1. demonstrate technical skills associated with written communication for academic purposes; (Assessment items: Assignment 2, Test)
2. develop and organise ideas and write an essay using an expository style; (Assessment items: Assignment 1, 2, 3, 5 & 6, Test)
3. prepare a stylistically appropriate report; (Assessment items: Assignment 4, Test)

- employ styles of communication as appropriate for the demands of the audience and purpose of the writing. (Assessment items: Assignment 5, Test)

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

- 1 Attendance requirements:
It is the students' responsibility to attend and participate appropriately in all activities (such as lecturers, tutorials, laboratories and practical work) scheduled for them, and to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course, and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.
- 2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
To complete each of the assessment items satisfactorily, students must obtain at least 50% of the marks available for each assessment item. All assignment items must be received prior to the start of the examination period for the semester in which the course is offered. Students may be required to resubmit an assignment that is unsatisfactory.
- 3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
If students submit assignments after the due date without an approved extension of time then a penalty of 5% of the total marks available for the assignments will apply for each day late.
- 4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
To be assured of receiving a passing grade a student must attempt all of the summative assessment items, achieve at least 50% on the examination and at least 50 % of the available weighted marks for the summative assessment items. Students who do not qualify for a Passing grade may, at the discretion of the Examiner, be assigned additional work to demonstrate to the Examiner that they have achieved the required standard. It is expected that such students have gained at least 40% of the total weighted marks available for the course.
- 5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
The final grades for students will be assigned on the basis of the weighted aggregate of the marks obtained for each of the summative assessment items in the course.
- 6 Examination information:
The examination in this course is a Closed Examination. Candidates are allowed to bring only writing instruments into the examination.
- 7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
Any Deferred or Supplementary examinations for this course will be held within four weeks following the examination period by arrangement with the examiner.
- 8 University Regulations:

Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6. Assessment, and 5.10 Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene University Regulations. These regulations can be found at the URL <http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm> or in the current USQ Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

- 1 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be produced within 24 hours if required by the Examiner. In accordance with the University's Assignment Extension Policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner of a course may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- 1 Students must score a B grade to be eligible for a recommendation of direct entry to an undergraduate degree.
