RATIONALE

This is the first course of the research component of the MVA degree in which the candidate is expected to produce a body of work which includes a written dissertation. This body of work is expected to make a significant contribution to the discipline, and represent a substantial development in relation to the candidate's prior practice, demonstrating artistic, intellectual and critical rigour of a high standard.

SYNOPSIS

The visual research methods within this course will involve a literature search, the refinement of the candidate's topic and identification of appropriate methodologies to be undertaken. It will include a comprehensive review of relevant secondary sources, and where possible primary sources, and the preparation of a well developed preliminary body of work.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. define their chosen dissertation topic (Assessment item Presentation of Dissertation Development refers);
2. present a well developed preliminary body of artwork relevant to proposed dissertation topic (Assessment item Presentation of Dissertation Development refers);
3. present a thorough review of existing literature related to their chosen dissertation topic (Assessment item Presentation of Dissertation Development refers);
4. define methodology of research appropriate to their chosen dissertation topic (Assessment item Presentation of Dissertation Development refers).
