SYNOPSIS

This course introduces students to the complex world of commerce. It emphasises the practical and functional nature of business decisions from the perspective of financial accounting; managerial costing and budgetary policies; investing; and financing of business operations. Designed to provide a solid foundation for further study in both accounting and non-accounting disciplines, the course provides a logical introduction to the accounting environment and to the common financial accounting (external) reports and management accounting (internal) tools used for decision-making purposes. As it is important to develop an understanding not only of how the accounting reports are used, but how they are derived, the course also addresses the procedures underlying their preparation. As the course assessment includes online tests, students will require Internet access to USQConnect. Access to a valid email account will also be required.

OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course students will be able to:

1. discuss the environment of accounting and finance in Australia (Online Test 1, Examination)
2. distinguish the key features of the environment of accounting and finance in realistic examples (Online Test 1, Examination)
3. define and discuss the main elements of accounting (assets; liabilities; owner's equity; income; expenses; drawings), and identify examples of each (Online Test 1, Examination)
4. prepare each of two major financial accounting reports (balance sheet; income statement); discuss the key features of the cash flow statement; and understand and discuss the

- accounting principles upon which they are based (Online Test 1, Online Test 2, Examination)
5. analyse basic business transactions in relation to their effects on the accounting equation and identified individual accounts (Online Test 3, Examination)
 6. discuss the role and function of the major components in the accounting cycle (source documents; journals; ledger) and demonstrate the transfer and processing of financial information for basic business transactions and events using these devices (Online Test 3, Examination)
 7. contrast the alternative accounting transaction recognition systems (cash; accrual) (Online Test 4, Examination)
 8. prepare balance day adjustments and demonstrate their impact on the preparation of final financial accounting reports (Online Test 4, Examination)
 9. discuss and demonstrate the effect of merchandising operations on the financial accounting process (Online Test 2, Online Test 4, Examination)
 10. discuss and apply common financial statement analysis techniques, interpret the results of these analysis techniques and discuss their implications for a business, and discuss the limitations of financial ratio analysis (Online Test 4, Examination)
 11. discuss the budgeting process, prepare budgets, and demonstrate the relevance of budgeting towards organisational planning and control (Online Test 5, Examination)
 12. explain the business investment decision-making process, and apply common investment appraisal tools (Online Test 5, Examination)
 13. discuss the main sources of finance for a business, and discuss the issues associated with working capital maintenance (Examination)
 14. discuss various aspects of ethics in accounting and business (Examination)
 15. discuss various aspects of social and environmental accountability (Examination).

ASSESSMENT DETAILS

Description	Marks out of	Wtg (%)	Due date
ASSIGNMENT	30.00	30.00	03 Mar 2008 (see note 1)
2 HOUR EXAMINATION	100.00	70.00	END S1 (see note 2)

NOTES

1. STUDENTS PLEASE NOTE: The assignment is a series of five online tests due at various times throughout the semester. Please refer to the Introductory Book for details. It is recommended that students complete all five tests. Each test is worth 10% but only the best three will be taken into account to determine final results. Students are strongly encouraged to complete tests as they fall due in order to keep up with course content. Failure to complete all five tests may place students at a disadvantage.
2. The examination is scheduled to be held in the end-of-semester examination period. Students will be advised of the official examination date after the timetable has been finalised.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

- 1 Attendance requirements:
It is the students' responsibility to attend and participate appropriately in all activities (such as lectures, tutorials, laboratories and practical work) scheduled for them, and to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.
- 2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
To satisfactorily complete an individual assessment item a student must achieve at least 50% of the marks. (Depending upon the requirements in Statement 4 below, students may not have to satisfactorily complete each assessment item to receive a passing grade in this course.)
- 3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
Not applicable.
- 4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
To be assured of receiving a passing grade a student must achieve at least 50% of the total weighted marks available for the course.
- 5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:

The final grades for students will be assigned on the basis of the aggregate of the weighted marks obtained for each of the summative assessment items in the course.

6 Examination information:

This is a restricted examination. Candidates are allowed access only to specific materials during the examination. The only materials that candidates may use in the restricted examination for this course are: writing materials (non-electronic and free from material which could give the student an unfair advantage in the examination); calculators which cannot hold textual information (students must indicate on their examination paper the make and model of any calculator(s) they use during the examination). Students whose first language is not English may take an appropriate unmarked non-electronic translation dictionary (but not technical dictionary) into the examination. Dictionaries with any handwritten notes will not be permitted. Translation dictionaries will be subject to perusal and may be removed from the candidate's possession until appropriate disciplinary action is completed if found to contain material that could give the candidate an unfair advantage. Students are not permitted to take mobile telephones, pagers or other electronic means of communication into the examination room.

7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:

Any Deferred or Supplementary examinations for this course will be held during the next examination period.

8 University Regulations:

Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6 Assessment, and 5.10 Student Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene university regulations. These regulations can be found at <http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm>. Students should also read the Faculty of Business Policies and Procedures which can be found at <http://www.usq.edu.au/business/aboutfob.htm>.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

- 1 Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper. The examination may test material already tested in previous summative assessment items.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- 1 Students can expect that questions in assessment items in this course may draw upon knowledge and skills that they can reasonably be expected to have acquired before enrolling in this course. This includes knowledge contained in pre-requisite courses and appropriate communication, information literacy, analytical, critical thinking, problem solving or numeracy skills. Students who do not possess such knowledge and skills should not expect the same grades as those students who do possess them.
- 2 E-mail and Internet access: Students will require access to e-mail and have Internet access to USQConnect for this course, as course communication is conducted electronically, and to complete online tests.
