RATIONALE

This course exists to satisfy the need for flexibility in workplace-based programs to cater for the widely varying interests and needs of students in preparing for workplace-based projects and it will be taken as indicated in the student's approved Learning Plan.

SYNOPSIS

Typically, the course will consist of knowledge and skills that the student requires to assist their workplace-based project(s). This could include project planning and management relevant to their project(s), directed readings or other activities that will assist the student in their project work. It could also include the study of a USQ course or courses that would support the student's project work.

OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge and skills in the complementary studies area.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

- 1 Attendance requirements:
It is the students' responsibility to attend and participate appropriately in all activities (such as lectures, tutorials, laboratories, and practical work) scheduled for them. For this course, consultation with the supervisor will be held at negotiated times throughout the semester.
- 2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 6 Examination information:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
To be advised when the student's Complementary Studies is determined.
- 8 University Regulations:
Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, and 5.6 Assessment for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene University Regulations. These regulations can be found at the URL <http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm> or in the printed version of the current USQ Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

- 1 SUPERVISION (a) The examiner will appoint a supervisor for each student enrolled in the course. (b) The supervisor will advise the student and the Examiner of the details of the study and assessment program in writing by the end of week 3 of the semester as in TOPICS above.
- 2 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the Examiner.
- 3 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be despatched to USQ within 24 hours if required by the Examiner.
- 4 In accordance with University's Assignment Extension Policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner of a course may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.
- 5 Assessments for workplace-based learning post-graduate programs in Professional Studies should normally be submitted in electronic form, unless alternative arrangements are required and/or approved by the Examiner.
- 6 USQ will NOT accept submission of assignments by facsimile.
- 7 Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in a course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of a course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study.
- 8 Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. The following temporary grade may be awarded: IDM (Incomplete Deferred Make-up).
