RATIONALE

This course, in conjunction with Portfolio Project B (course code CSC3415), is designed to provide students with practice in bringing together the skills they have acquired during the program for the solution of problems of a kind they are likely to face in their subsequent employment. It also provides students with practice in written communication.

SYNOPSIS

This course is the confluence of the knowledge and skills acquired in most other courses of the major. By undertaking the design of a games application, students develop their skills and professional practices. There will be particular emphasis on the use of modern tools and techniques for games project design and construction.

OBJECTIVES

On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. carry out a major games project design project; (Assignments 1 & 2)
2. describe their work and communicate their results; (Assignments 1 & 2)
3. use modern design techniques and tools in all aspects of the games project. (Assignments 1 & 2)
