

Indigenising the Curriculum Seminar Wednesday 20 February 2008

- | | |
|---------|--|
| 9.15am | Arrival (Tea & Coffee) |
| 9.30am | Commencement of Seminar |
| | Welcome to Country Uncle Brian Tobane (Traditional Owner) |
| | Welcome to USQ Pro Vice-Chancellor (Learning & Teaching) Prof Lynne Hunt |
| 10.00am | University of South Australia presentation Working with Cultural Competency: The Way Forward for Indigenisation Discussing cultural competence model as a framework for developing content and teaching strategies in university education |
| 11.00am | Morning Tea |
| 11.30am | University of South Australia presentation cont'd |
| 1.00pm | Lunch |
| 2.00pm | USQ Overview Rhonda Hagan |
| 2.30pm | University of South Australia presentation Exploring the Affective Change: The Transformational Benefits of Aboriginal Studies for Undergraduate Students. Students' experiences in taking Indigenous topics, the difficulties they encountered, and strategies to deal with discomfort and challenging issues |
| 3.00pm | Afternoon tea |
| 3.30pm | University of South Australia presentation cont'd |
| 4.30pm | Conclude |