

USQ Students and Staff

USQ Library Borrowing Regulations: USQ Students and Staff

1. In order to borrow from the USQ Library students must be active in their Academic Program and currently enrolled in that semester's courses.
2. Borrowing rights are not transferable.
3. Upon registration, the borrower agrees to abide by the loan conditions applicable to his/her membership category.
4. All loaned material is subject to recall. If material is recalled, due dates may be altered. The Library will issue notification of new due dates via mail or email, but is under no obligation to do so. Fines will apply from the new due date.
5. The onus for the return of Library resources, in good order and condition, by the due date and in the correct manner rests with the borrower. The Library endeavours to send an overdue and reminder notices, but has no obligation to do so.
6. The borrower is required to pay any fines or penalties imposed under the loan conditions of the Library. The Library endeavours to notify borrowers of outstanding fines or penalties, but has no obligation to do so.
7. USQ results will be withheld pending resolution of outstanding debts.
8. Infringement of any Library regulations may result in borrowing rights being withdrawn.
9. The Executive Director (DAIS) or nominee has the right to vary borrowing regulations or loan conditions without prior notice.
10. In borrowing resources you give implied consent to receive various associated email notices (including overdue, recall, reminder, request and fine notices).
11. Students and staff should monitor their loans transactions regularly in case items have been requested and/or due dates have been altered.