The Course Quality Review Form

Student performance and satisfaction

	sues for improvement.
G	rade distribution across campuses
G	rade distribution between domestic and international students
L
C	rade distribution between international and international partner students
G	rade distribution between on campus and external students
L
G	rade distribution between equity groups
L
G	rade distribution for major offer (as required)
L
9	% passes and failes
[% passes and failes
y	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings. specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement.
y	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings. specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means
y er	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings. specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement.
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings. specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement.
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings, specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement.
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings, specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement.
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings, specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement. On campus students Toowoomba On campus students Springfield On campus students Fraser Coast
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings, specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement. On campus students Toowoomba On campus students Springfield
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings, specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ means positive outcomes and identify points for improvement. On campus students Toowoomba On campus students Springfield On campus students Fraser Coast
	se and compare student satisfaction with this course for different learning settings specifically to SEC data and how this course compares with faculty and USQ mean positive outcomes and identify points for improvement. On campus students Toowoomba On campus students Springfield On campus students Fraser Coast

Lea	Learning and Teaching Issues
To v	vhat extent do the teaching ac	tiviti	es ar	ıd as	sessi	nent support student learn	ing?
	Please rate between 1 (lowest) and 5 (highest)
	Comment	1	2	3	4	5
	Comment
To what extent do the flexible learning opportunities provided enhance the course?
	Please rate between 1 (lowest) and 5 (highest)
		1	_	3	4	5
	Comment
	How well are the Indigenous, international and intercultural perspectives embedded in the learning and assessment activities in this course?
ieai	ning and assessment activitie	3 III C	IIIS C	Juist	•
	Indigenous perspective
	International perspective
	Intercultural perspective
com	Identify, as appropriate, successful outcomes and points for improvement in any practical components of this course (laboratory work, studio work, work-based learning, clinical or professional placements).
	Laboratory work
	Studio work
	Work-based learning
	Clinical placements
	Professional placements
	Other

Moderation and Benchmarking
Comment on the moderation process used within the course.
Comment
Identify required actions for course enhancement arising from the Board of Examiners.
Comment
Action Plan
Summarise examples of good learning and teaching practice in this course.
Comment
Summarise actions that should be undertaken to enhance the learning experiences of students in the next revision of the course:
Course design
Assessment
Flexible learning
Moderation
Retention, performance, satisfaction
Moderator's Feedback
Comment on this course quality review.
Comment						