

LEARNING AND TEACHING GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

The USQ Teaching Excellence Project is designed to assist staff in the development of learning and teaching track record and to facilitate the development of teaching e-portfolios. Support for staff includes the provision of Learning and Teaching Grants and Fellowships.

USQ Fellowships

The aim of USQ Fellowships is to advance learning and teaching by supporting staff to undertake strategic activities in faculties that support the University's mission and values.

<http://www.usq.edu.au/aboutusq/strategy>

On the recommendation of the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Learning & Teaching), the Vice-Chancellor may grant annually:

- up to two USQ Senior Learning and Teaching Fellowships
- up to five USQ Associate Learning and Teaching Fellowships

More information <http://www.usq.edu.au/learnteach/path/grantsawards/ltgrantsfellow/usqfellows>

Australian Learning and Teaching Council (ALTC) Fellowships

The Fellowship Scheme supports leading educators to undertake a program of strategic, high profile fellowship activities in areas that support the mission of the ALTC.

More information <http://www.altc.edu.au/fellowships-overview>

Australian Learning and Teaching Council (ALTC) Grants

The Grants Scheme comprises three ongoing programs:

- Competitive Grants (CG)
- Leadership for Excellence in Learning and Teaching (LP)
- Priority Projects (PP)

More information <http://www.altc.edu.au/grants-overview>

Support for the Promoting Excellence Project has been provided from the Australian Learning and Teaching Council.

