How to become a Psychologist

Use your Psychology degree to pursue a career in counselling (see counselling career pathways)

Bachelor of Science (Psychology) 3 years or part-time equivalent

Bachelor of Science (Psychology Extended) 3 years or part-time equivalent

Bachelor of Psychology (Honours) 4 years or part-time equivalent

Registration as a Provisional Psychologist

To become a Clinical Psychologist
A clinical psychologist has advanced training in diagnosis and assessment of mental health and a focus on the long-term health of individuals.

Master of Psychology (Clinical) 2 years or part-time equivalent

Master of Psychology/PhD (Clinical Psychology) 4 years or part-time equivalent

General Registration as a Psychologist

To become a Professional Psychologist
Professional psychologists often find careers in occupational health and safety, change management, professional development, community consultation and advocacy.

Master of Professional Psychology 1 year or part-time equivalent PLUS One year internship and completion of a national exam

Find out more about Psychology at usq.edu.au/psychology