RATIONALE
Courses USQ89005 - USQ89008 will provide a significant opportunity for doctoral study which will enhance professional practice in a particular field of education and will allow educators to investigate professional practice problems at the doctoral level and proffer solutions. The courses will provide the opportunity for educators to develop and apply appropriate theoretical frameworks to the study of professional practice and to contribute to the advancement of knowledge in this domain. Criteria for completion and examination of these courses will be equivalent with the University's criteria for completion and examination of doctoral studies.

SYNOPSIS
This is a supervised research course. Three research alternatives are offered - a Dissertation or one of two Folio Alternatives (Substantial Investigatory Project/Multiple Investigations). This course will involve students in a number of tasks namely the presentation of the study for external examination, the use of presentation methods that are consistent with the type of study undertaken (e.g. Dissertation or Folio), the selection of methods of dissemination of knowledge that are consistent with the type of study undertaken (Dissertation or Folio).

OBJECTIVES
On the completion of this course students will be able to:

- Present a thesis or folio for external examination.
- Select and use presentation methods that will promote the dissemination of knowledge.
- Extend and expand the research base of professional practitioners in a selected area.
- Demonstrate a high level of understanding of key issues and insights into professional leadership of a selected area of study.
