SYNOPSIS
Business success is highly dependent upon efficient administration. Every individual, irrespective of his/her specialist expertise, who seeks to enter the business environment requires a knowledge of effective administrative techniques. This course provides, from a supervisory perspective, a specialised view of a number of administrative tasks encountered in the day-to-day functioning of an organisation. Having completed this course students should be able to plan and organise a wide range of administrative activities.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- provide an overview of the changing role of administrative management in organizations;
- demonstrate an understanding of the issues involved with planning the layout of an office and the issues associated with the selection and maintenance of office equipment and supplies;
- understand the importance of health, safety and security issues pertaining to the administrative functions of an organisation;
- organise effective business meetings, conferences and business travel arrangements;
- demonstrate an understanding of the various issues associated with managing Call Centres.

NOTES:
3. You will be notified of the official examination date when the scheduling is finalised.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1. To achieve a passing grade in this course students must attempt all of the assessments and achieve 50% in the examination and achieve an aggregated mark of at least 50% in the total marks allocated for the assignments, and at least 50% of the available marks for the course. Criteria for the higher grades: Final grades for the course will be determined by the addition of the marks obtained in each assessment item, weighted as in the Assessment Details.

2. The due date of an assignment is the date by which a student must submit the assignment to the University, and is normally that defined in the relevant course specification.

3. Students should organise their affairs to ensure that they meet due dates for all assignments. Extensions will be granted only under exceptional extenuating circumstances, normally involving a significant medical condition.

4. Students may apply for an assignment extension either by application to the Examiner before the due date or by including application with the submitted assignment after the due date. Such applications should be in writing and include supporting documentary evidence. The authority for granting extensions rests with the relevant Examiner.

5. All assignments submitted after due dates without appropriate extension approvals or after approved extension dates may be penalised up to a maximum of 20% of the assigned mark per work day.

6. Students must retain a copy of all assignments which must be provided if/when required by the Examiner.

7. Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper.
