STAFFING
Examiner: Bob Wicks

SYNOPSIS
Within this course students who have a history of good academic achievement may undertake a project that is research, discipline or field based. The objectives of the project are developed in conjunction with the member of the academic staff, selected to supervise and evaluate the project. The course encourages students to develop independent research techniques that will culminate in a report that lends itself to academic scrutiny. Enrolment in this course must have the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- develop an independent capacity to research, document, analyse and report on a project of substance.

NOTES:
1. Refer to Course Specifications for information about assignment due dates.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1. To obtain a passing mark in this course students must normally obtain a passing mark for the assignments in aggregate; and obtain a passing mark for the final examination. Further information regarding assessment of the course may be found in the Introductory Book.

2. The due date of an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the University, and is normally that defined in the relevant course specification. The onus is on the student to provide, if requested, proof of date of despatch.

3. Students should organise their affairs to ensure that they meet due dates for all assignments. Extensions will be granted only under exceptional extenuating circumstances, normally involving a significant medical condition.

4. Students may apply for an assignment extension either by application through DEC before the due date or by including application with the submitted assignment after the due date. Such applications should be in writing and include supporting documentary evidence. The authority for granting extensions rests with the relevant Course Leader.

5. All assignments despatched after due dates without appropriate extension approvals or after approved extension dates will be penalised up to a maximum of 20% of the assigned mark per work day.

6. Students must retain a copy of all assignments which must be provided if/when required by the Course Leader.

7. Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper.
