RATIONALE
This course provides the student with important music skills which supplement Performance courses. Important elements in the development of a musician are aural awareness and a knowledge of music writing techniques.

SYNOPSIS
This course provides practical instruction in orchestration and arrangement for brass ensemble and full orchestra. It also further develops aural acuity relating to pitch, melody, multi-metric rhythm, four-part and orchestral work, harmony and form, phrasing and articulation.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will have:

- acquired further skills in orchestration and arranging;
- further developed their powers of aural observation and awareness.
TOPICS

Description Weighting (%)

1. MODULE A - WRITING TECHNIQUES Arranging and orchestrating for full orchestra. Beginning with wind and brass writing, this study will lead to exercises in the use of full orchestra. 0.00

2. MODULE B - AURAL TRAINING AND PERCEPTION A systematic and regular series of classes designed to awaken aural awareness in all students and to provide them with a foundation in aural perception. 0.00
