RATIONALE
Studio Teaching courses are designed to provide students with practical experience in teaching pupils together with a knowledge and understanding of teaching principles and practices. This course is the third of four that assist students in developing an understanding of, and ability in, music teaching from beginner to advanced level. Specific attention is given in this course to teaching of intermediate level students.

SYNOPSIS
Students will continue to develop expertise in the areas of teaching repertoire, teaching principles, musical concepts, specific instrumental techniques and musical literacy. They will also continue studies in the psychology of human and musical development. Focus in this course is on the teaching of intermediate level students. As this course follows from course MUS 2042, students will be required to develop their expertise in each of the designated areas to a more advanced level.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will have achieved:

- an increased understanding of some teaching methods relating to their voice or instrument;
- the ability to teach students at intermediate level;
- the ability to perform and discuss teaching implications of repertoire at intermediate level;
- an understanding of aspects of child and musical development.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1. In order to fully meet the objectives of this course, attendance and participation in lectures and tutorials is strongly advised. Failure to attend and participate in lectures and tutorials will make it difficult to adequately fulfil the objectives of this course.
2. Unless approval for late submission has been obtained, late assignments will be penalised at the rate of 10% of the assignment's mark per working day overdue. For internal students assignments are due by 4.00pm on the due date. Extension requests must be made in writing no later than 24 hours before the due time, and supported by documented evidence, eg medical certificate.
3. A final grade is determined on the basis of the accumulated points, ie if the accumulated percentage across all items of assessment is within the Credit range, then the final grade is Credit (B); if the total is within the Pass range, then the final grade is Pass (C), etc.
4. STUDENT WORKLOAD REQUIREMENTS: Lectures/Tutorials 39 hours; Directed Study 111 hours; Practical Experience 13 hours; Examination 2 hours.
