RATIONALE
Students should have the opportunity to complement their Master degree specialisations with studies essential to the continued development of their abilities to a high level. For Performance students this will involve submission of the dissertation and for Teaching students it will involve complementary practical studies.

SYNOPSIS
This course is designed to enable Performance students to present the dissertation on a specific aspect of music related to their specialisation prepared in the pre-requisite course, and for Teaching students to increase their standard of personal performance and the breadth of their repertoire.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will have acquired advanced skills in areas that will complement their specialisation. These are:

- Performance: Presentation of a dissertation, and Teaching: development of an extended personal repertoire
TOPICS

Description Weighting (%)
1. Performance: written and oral presentation of dissertation (10,000 words)  0.00
   Teaching: selection, preparation and presentation of a repertoire that will lead to personal extension.
