SYNOPSIS
This course introduces students to the basic institutions and processes of Government internationally, focusing on the Australian model. Areas covered include the constitutional issues, federal and unitary systems of government, inter-governmental relations, parliamentary processes, the role of the Executive, the public sector, electoral systems, voting behaviour and the role and influence of interest groups.

OBJECTIVES
Completion of this course will enable students to:

- have an informed understanding of a range of political systems, and the operation of their practices and institutions;
- have the capacity to appreciate and evaluate political phenomena in a critical, analytical manner;
- have the ability to present rational, well-researched, written arguments about politics with clarity and coherence;
- have an understanding of the nature of politics and of major political concepts as they apply to Australia, and a variety of other countries in comparison.

NOTES:
1. 2000 Word Essay. Please refer to Other Requirements 1
2. 2000 Word Essay. Please refer to Other Requirements 1
4. You will be notified of the official examination date when the scheduling is finalised.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1. Students must complete Assignment No.1 and select one other of the remaining Assessments 2 or 3.
2. To achieve a passing grade in this course students will be required to attempt all of the assessments and achieve 50% in the examination and achieve an aggregate mark of at least 50% in the total marks allocated for the assignments, and at least 50% of the available marks for the course Final grades for the course will be determined by the addition of the marks obtained in each assessment item, weighted as in the Assessment Details. Students seeking a B grade in this course will be expected to secure 65% of the total marks available in the subject. Students seeking to obtain an A in this course will be expected to secure 75% of the total marks available in this subject. Students seeking to obtain an HD in this course will be expected to secure 85% of the total marks available in the subject.
3. The due date of an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the University, and is normally that defined in the relevant course specification. The onus is on the student to provide, if requested, proof of date of despatch.
4 Students should organise their affairs to ensure that they meet due dates for all assignments. Extensions will be granted only under exceptional extenuating circumstances, normally involving a significant medical condition.

5 Students may apply for an assignment extension either by application through DEC before the due date or by including application with the submitted assignment after the due date. Such applications should be in writing and include supporting documentary evidence. The authority for granting extensions rests with the relevant Course Leader.

6 All assignments despatched after due dates without appropriate extension approvals or after approved extension dates will be penalised up to a maximum of 20% of the assigned mark per work day.

7 Students must retain a copy of all assignments which must be provided if/when required by the Course Leader.

8 Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper.

9 Students must demonstrate effective essay writing techniques, including correct in-text referencing and bibliographical details, using the Harvard System.

10 Assignments must comply with the Faculty of Business guidelines set out in the Communications Skills Handbook 5th edition. Should assignments not comply with these requirements, then the Course Leader reserves (and has) the right to not mark the submitted assignment.
