RATIONALE
Personal financial planning (PFP) is becoming more and more important, both to individuals and to accountants in their offering of services to the public. Governments have made it very clear that the public sector will support retirees and the unemployed to a 'safety-net' standard only. In addition, people increasingly will be asked to manage their superannuation savings. Accountants especially are responding to these social changes such that PFP is becoming an integral part of accountants' practices. Accountants need to be skilled in this area as part of their professional expertise. Individuals will have more comfortable lives if they plan and manage their finances skillfully.

SYNOPSIS
In this course students will be exposed to the financial planning process and the legal framework and responsibilities of planners. Wealth creation will be dealt with in some detail as will superannuation. Planning for retirement, protection of property and family and social security issues are included.

OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this course students should be able to:

- identify and discuss the process of financial planning for clients;
- understand the Australian legal framework within which planners operate and their legal responsibilities;
- describe and assess the various asset sectors available to Australians and their past performance;
- understand the operation of superannuation in Australia;
- plan for, identify and manipulate retirement income streams;
• be aware of mechanisms for the protection of assets, income streams, for both single individuals and families; and
• be aware of the chief components of the social security structure in Australia.
