SYNOPSIS
The course content will focus on the preparation and performance of a movement or movements from a solo concerto in the student's main area of practical performance, the remainder of the concerto forming the basis for Concerto Studies 3.

OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will have:

- further advanced their standard of performance in their chosen field of practical study;
- increased their knowledge of the literature of music by the study of a major work from the concerto repertoire relevant to their chosen field of practical study;
- developed an understanding of the ensemble implications of concerto performance.

1.1. In consultation with the teacher during the first weeks of the semester, each student will be required to select a movement or movements of an important concerto from the 19th or 20th centuries. The selected concerto movement(s) must be approved by the teacher and Head of Music. The concerto movement(s) will then form the basis of the student's work for the semester with the remainder of the concerto forming the basis for Concerto Studies 3.

2. CLASS AND TEACHER CRITICISM OF STUDENT PERFORMANCE 25.00

2.1. In addition to the normal weekly lesson, students are required to participate in Master Class and Concert Practice Classes as required by the teacher.

3. PERFORMANCE UNDER CONCERT HALL CONDITIONS 25.00

3.1. Students are required to perform at campus Lunchtime Concerts and other performance outlets as required by the teacher and approved by the Head of Music.

4. PERFORMANCE UNDER EXAM CONDITIONS 25.00

4.1. All students are required to present themselves for periodic formal examination. The approved Concerto movement(s) must be performed with the student orchestra in either Concerto Studies 2 or 3. This performance date will be advised by the Head of Music at the beginning of the relevant semester and will not necessarily fall within the official University assessment period. The balance of the Concerto will be performed with piano accompaniment and will form the basis of the end of semester examination for the other semester. This exam may take the form of a campus Lunchtime Concert with the consent of the Head of Music.
