RATIONALE
This Masters level course is designed to facilitate synthesis of knowledge from previous studies as the basis for addressing the learning needs of the student, through a learning contract.

SYNOPSIS
This course is based on a negotiated learning contract between students and course leader. The learning contract requires that students draw on their previous learning and to identify their current learning needs. OBJECTIVES
On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- develop a learning contract which identifies own learning objectives, resources, learning processes and method/s of evaluation; and
