RATIONALE
Nurses fulfil their professional role in a health care system which is heavily influenced, by sociological factors. These factors have a direct impact on the way in which Nursing is perceived and utilised within the system, as well as the way in which nurses perceive themselves, and their role. Students in nursing must identify the forces which historically have shaped the profession of nursing in order to accurately assess and discuss the issues which confront nurses today. These include industrial and professional nursing issues, current paradigms and theories within nursing, images of nursing, ethico-legal issues, gender issues, and socio-political and economic issues.

SYNOPSIS
This course introduces the student to the position of Nursing in the Health Care System. Perspectives to be explored will include social, political, organisational and legal/ethical factors. Professional issues will be examined and the politics of health will be discussed.

OBJECTIVES
On completion of the course students will be able to:

- discuss the historical factors which have influenced the evolution of nursing as a profession;
- identify and debate contemporary issues in nursing;
- describe the role of Professional and Industrial nursing organisations;
• discuss the attributes of professional practice as they relate to Nursing and the individual nurse;
• describe the position of nursing within the health care system;
• relate relevant legal principles to specific nursing and related health care venues and situations;
• consider ethical principles which will form the basis for ethical reasoning in nursing practice;
• identify the basic structure and function of the Australian Health Care System;
• consider alternative political ideological perspectives on health care delivery.

   Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

9 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the Examiner.

10 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. If requested, students will be required to provide a copy of assignments submitted for assessment purposes. Such copies should be despatched to USQ within 24 hours of receipt of a request to do so from the Examiner.

11 The examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

12 The Faculty will normally only accept assessments that have been written, typed or printed on paper-based media.

13 In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, such as a Show holiday, the due date for the assignment will be the next day.
    Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the Examiner's convenience.

14 Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in the course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of the course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non directed personal study.
