RATIONALE
This course introduces students to university level study and learning skills and to student life skills. It is a comprehensive guide to developing effective study strategies vital to successful completion of a tertiary level programme. The course is designed for undergraduate and post-graduate international students.

SYNOPSIS
The course is designed around the acquisition of effective student life skills. An emphasis is placed on independent study and learning skills, effective life style management and self motivation. The investigation of learning integrates the acquisition and organisation of knowledge and understanding of learning with life skills. By focusing students’ attention on the study and learning processes, individuals are made aware of their competencies and of the learning strategies required in tertiary study. Regular feedback on written work and in class discussion helps them form an understanding of the nature of their own resources and how to learn in a purposeful, organised and appropriate way. The course assumes that, if capable students are made aware of effective learning and study methods, and they can be guided to success in these matters, they will subsequently act to optimise their academic performance.
OBJECTIVES
On completion of the course the student will be able to:

1. develop strategies to help build their motivation and their orientation to study;
2. organise time and their personal circumstances to best assist study efforts;
3. employ study skills effectively in achieving sound academic performance at the tertiary level;
4. monitor behaviour and where necessary adjust to cope with social and academic demands;
5. effectively use a typical university computing system to demonstrate skills with standard applications software for study and learning purposes.
