RATIONALE
The education of students with disabilities continues to move towards a more inclusive approach. Many students with a range of special needs are now educated in regular settings. This requires educators to be able to develop and adapt curricula to meet the needs of a diverse range of learners within the regular setting. It is also important for educators to be aware of the issues surrounding disability and current policy and practice regarding supporting people with disabilities.

SYNOPSIS
This course will provide the preservice educator with the skills to be able to establish and implement an inclusive setting. Consideration will first be given to current issues regarding disability awareness and to policy and practice in disability areas. Transition issues faced by students, families and educators will be viewed in relation to making a positive move to inclusive education for all concerned. Preservice educators will be trained in the process of collaboration and the ability to work in teams to problem-solve challenges associated with inclusion. Organisational and administrative issues will be considered. The developmental aspect of lesson planning and the importance of adapting the curriculum to meet the individual needs of students within regular settings will also be covered. IMPORTANT NOTE: Working with Children: State law in Queensland requires that all adults (including university students, pre-service educators, trainers, vocational teachers, industry educators) working with children under the age of 18, in the State of Queensland*, obtain approval before commencing such work. Many education courses include a practical component (professional experience, project work, research, assessment etc.) that may require engagement with children under the age of 18. It is your responsibility to ensure that you possess a current suitability card (Blue Card) before commencing any practical components of this course. DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE WITH CHILDREN UNDER 18 UNLESS YOU POSSESS A CURRENT 'BLUE CARD'. For further information: http://www.childcomm.qld.gov.au/employment/bluecard/informationSheets.html *If you are undertaking practical experience outside the State of Queensland, Australia you should check local requirements.
