RATIONALE

Courses EDU 9611 - EDU 9618 provide a significant opportunity for research which will allow educators to investigate professional practice problems at the doctoral level.

SYNOPSIS

This course is a continuation of the research project designed and commenced in EDU 9611. The specific tasks required for the completion of this course will be negotiated between the student and his/her supervisors. It is expected that this course will culminate with production of a dissertation or folio in draft form. IMPORTANT NOTE: Working with Children: State law in Queensland requires that all adults (including university students, pre-service educators, trainers, vocational teachers, industry educators) working with children under the age of 18, in the state of Queensland*, obtain approval before commencing such work. Many education courses include a practical component (professional experience, project work, research, assessment etc..) that may require engagement with children under the age of 18. It is your responsibility to ensure that you possess a current suitability card (Blue Card) before commencing any practical components of this course. DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE WITH CHILDREN UNDER 18 UNLESS YOU POSSESS A CURRENT ‘BLUE CARD’. For further information: http://www.childcomm.qld.gov.au/employment/bluecard/informationSheets.html. *If you are undertaking practical experience outside the state of Queensland, Australia you should check local requirements.

OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course students will be able to:
1. report the results of research in a manner appropriate to a dissertation or folio;
2. complete a thesis or folio in draft form;
3. select and use presentation methods that will promote the dissemination of knowledge and
4. demonstrate a high level of understanding of key issues and insights into a selected area of study.

NOTES

1. The examiner will advise the due date for this assessment item. Letter grades will be used in this course and displayed in the notes section.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

1. Attendance requirements:
   There are no attendance requirements for this course. However, it is the students’ responsibility to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them.
to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.

2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
   Requirement as negotiated between student and supervisor.

3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
   Supervisor may decline to assess work submitted late.

4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
   To be assured of receiving a passing grade a student must satisfy the criteria as negotiated between the student and supervisor - see important assessment note 2 (above) - to the satisfaction of the supervisor(s).

5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
   SP is the only passing grade available for this course. All students who are qualified for a Satisfactory Progress grade, as in important assessment information note 4 (above), will be given a grade of SP. Other students will be given either an IDM (Incomplete - Deferred Make-up) grade or an F (Fail).

6 Examination information:
   There is no examination in this course.

7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
   There will be no Deferred or Supplementary examinations in this course.

8 University Regulations:
   Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6. Assessment, and 5.10 Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene University Regulations. These regulations can be found at the URL http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm or in the current USQ Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

1 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the examiner.

2 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be produced within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of request being made by the examiner. The student must retain this copy until the grade for this course has been finalised.

3 In accordance with the University's assignment extension policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

4 Student work, such as draft chapters, outlines, etc., to be submitted in a form and format indicated by the supervisor(s). The Faculty will normally only accept assessments that have been written, typed or printed on paper-based media.

5 The Faculty will NOT accept submission of assignments by facsimile.

6 Students who do not have regular access to postal services or who are otherwise disadvantaged by these regulations may be given special consideration. They should contact the examiner of the course to negotiate such special arrangements.

7 In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, such as a Show holiday, the due date for the assignment will be the next working day. Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the examiner's convenience.
8 Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in a course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of a course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study.

9 Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. One of the following temporary grades may be awarded IDS (Incomplete - Deferred Examination); IDM (Incomplete - Deferred Make-up); IDB (Incomplete - Both Deferred Examination and Deferred Make-up).

10 When there is more than one marker for a single item of assessment, the distributed patterns and means for the different markers will be compared and marks adjusted if necessary.

11 Marking criteria are provided in course material as mark sheets/guides or as part of assignment specifications.

12 Each assessment item must be submitted with a pass overall gained.

13 Summative assessment items will receive one of the following letter grades: SP, F or IDM (Incomplete Deferred Make-up).
