RATIONALE
Competing notions of culture are, arguably, the most significant features of contemporary social life. In the face of growing concerns over the potential homogenizing effects of globalization tendencies, many ethnically- or culturally-grounded groups assert a claim to visibility and recognition. The social problematic of accommodating multiple cultural positions and drawing from those to strengthen shared or common cultures is reflected in ideas of multiculturalism, and this has become a defining characteristic of many contemporary communities. Education plays a crucial role in the on-going development of social cohesion in a multicultural society and teachers need to be aware of the philosophical, theoretical, policy and practical dimensions of various streams or versions of multiculturalism.

SYNOPSIS
This course will introduce and explore notions of culture, ethnicity, race, difference and tolerance in order to provide a basis for students to forge a connection between social and educational theory and policy. Students will explore the development of whiteness as a dominating cultural norm and will come to understand something of the effects of racism on all members of a community. The topic of racism and attendant concepts of xenophobia, assimilation, integration and marginalisation will be a prominent focus of this course.
OBJECTIVES

The course objectives define the student learning outcomes for a course. The assessment item(s) that may be used to assess student achievement of an objective are shown in parenthesis. On completion of this course students will be able to:

1. demonstrate an understanding of a number of forms of and approaches to multiculturalism (Assignments 1 and 2)
2. evaluate and locate practical forms of multiculturalism within competing notions of culture and community (Assignments 1 and 2)
3. demonstrate an understanding of forms and effects of racism on and within communities (Assignment 1)
4. articulate an understanding of the role of cultural domination played by the invisibility of whiteness. (Assignment 2)

ASSESSMENT NOTES

1 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the examiner.

2 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be produced within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of request being made by the examiner. The student must retain this copy until the grade for this course has been finalised.

3 In accordance with the University's assignment extension policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

Students who do not have regular access to postal services or who are otherwise disadvantaged by these regulations may be given special consideration. They should contact the examiner of the course to negotiate such special arrangements.

5 Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in a course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of a course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study.

8 Marking criteria are provided in course material as mark sheets/guides or as part of assignment specifications.

9 Summative assessment items will receive a numerical score. Any ungraded assessment requirement will receive a Pass, Fail or Incomplete.
