RATIONALE
This course is an introduction to the education of students with disabilities. It is designed to be of particular relevance to teachers in regular schools who have students with disabilities included in their classes, and current or intending special educators and support personnel. Inclusive policies have resulted in many students with disabilities attending regular classes, and this has created a need for teachers in all settings and at all levels, to upgrade their knowledge and skills in relation to the special educational needs associated with a range of disabling conditions.

SYNOPSIS
This introductory course comprises a comprehensive study of the educational support needs of students with intellectual impairment, learning disabilities, emotional and behavioural disorders, communication disorders, sensory impairments, and physical impairments. There is also a section on the exceptional needs of students who are gifted and talented. Information about disabling conditions which may impact on school learning and adjustment is presented, but the emphasis is on evaluating the individual learning needs of students to optimise their access to the curriculum.

OBJECTIVES
The course objectives define the student learning outcomes for a course. The assessment item(s) that may be used to assess student achievement of an objective are shown in parenthesis. On completion of this course the student will be able to:
1. trace the development of special education services with particular reference to recent developments in Australia, the United States, and the UK (Essay)
2. list current trends and issues related to the education of students with special educational needs (Essay)
3. demonstrate knowledge of the causes and chief characteristics of a range of disabling conditions and disorders (Essay, Case Study, Exam)
4. apply knowledge and understanding of the learning characteristics of students with special needs to curriculum development and classroom practice with particular reference to the inclusive curriculum (Case Study, Exam)
5. demonstrate a knowledge of the programs, curriculum adaptations and teaching strategies that have been developed for students experiencing mild-moderate difficulties in social and emotional development (Case Study, Exam)
6. demonstrate a knowledge of management procedures and curriculum adaptations relevant to the teaching of students with special needs in the regular and special education classroom (Case Study, Exam)
7. demonstrate competence in written language and scholarly writing including correct spelling, grammar, and bibliographic referencing (Case Study, Exam)

These regulations can be found at the URL http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm or in the current USQ Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

1 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the examiner.

2 Students must retain a copy of each item submitted for assessment. This must be produced within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of request being made by the examiner. The student must retain this copy until the grade for this course has been finalised.

3 In accordance with the University's assignment extension policy (Regulation 5.6.1), the examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

4 The Faculty will normally only accept assessments that have been written, typed or printed on paper-based media.

5 The Faculty will NOT accept submission of assignments by facsimile.

6 Students who do not have regular access to postal services or who are otherwise disadvantaged by these regulations may be given special consideration. They should contact the examiner of the course to negotiate such special arrangements.

7 In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, the due date for the assignment will be the next working day. Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the examiner's convenience.

8 Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in a course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of a course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study.
Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. One of the following temporary grades may be awarded IDS (Incomplete - Deferred Examination); IDM (Incomplete - Deferred Make-up); IDB (Incomplete - Both Deferred Examination and Deferred Make-up).

When there is more than one marker for a single item of assessment, the distributed patterns and means for the different markers will be compared and marks adjusted if necessary.

Marking criteria are provided in course material as mark sheets/guides or as part of assignment specifications.

Summative assessment items will receive a numerical score. Any ungraded assessment requirement will receive a Pass, Fail or Incomplete.
