OTHER REQUISITES
State law in Queensland (Australia) requires that all adults working/undertaking professional experience/researching with children under the age of 18, in the state of Queensland are required to possess a current suitability card (Blue Card). (See "Other Requirements" for further information.) Also see: http://www.childcomm.qld.gov.au/employment/bluecard/informationSheets.html.

RATIONALE
With the forces of globalisation and the internationalisation of education, there is a rapidly growing interest in bilingualism and bilingual education. More and more educational programs are introduced, where the school content is taught through a second or foreign language. Also, there is a trend to replace traditional methods of language teaching with language teaching methods used in bilingual programs and introduce a second language early in childhood years. Bilingualism is of increasing interest in the context of minorities as well. A large proportion of minority children in most countries of the world are required to study through a second language. These learners include migrants as well as indigenous people who do not have the opportunity to opt for education through their mother tongue. These trends create a need for investigating language development in a more holistic way, incorporating first and second language development as well as children's cognitive and academic development. Language teachers who work in similar contexts need to develop an awareness of the relevant cognitive, educational, cultural and social processes involved in teaching learners through a second language. This course will benefit all language teachers who are dealing with majority students being educated in a foreign language or minority students being educated in the language of the dominant society. By focusing on the underlying psycholinguistic theories, the course will serve as a basis for undertaking further studies or embarking on research in the field of bilingualism.

SYNOPSIS
Teachers who are involved in language teaching, whether they are teaching first or second languages are generally not aware of the psycholinguistic, socio-psychological and educational issues involved in bilingualism. This course looks at bilingualism from these three main angles (1, psycholinguistic, 2, socio-psychological and 3, educational) and covers the following topics: definitions and typologies of bilingualism, the measurement of bilingualism, the psycholinguistic aspects of bilingual language acquisition and language processing, code-switching, bilingualism and cognition, types of bilingual education. Relevant theories and implications are discussed both in the majority as well as in the ethnolinguistic minority contexts. This course has a strong psycholinguistic focus.

OBJECTIVES

The course objectives define the student learning outcomes for a course. The assessment item(s) that may be used to assess student achievement of an objective are shown in parenthesis. On successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. use typologies of bilingualism to describe various bilingual contexts; (Assignment 1)
2. evaluate various techniques used for measuring bilinguality and bilingualism; (Assignment 1)
3. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between first language development and second language development; (Assignment 1 & 2)
4. critically discuss the interrelationship between bilingualism, culture and identity; (Assignment 2)
5. demonstrate an understanding of the psychological and cognitive processes involved in bilingual language processing; (Assignment 2)
6. classify and evaluate different types of bilingual educational programs; (Assignment 2)
7. demonstrate an understanding of the linguistic, metalinguistic, cognitive, affective and social benefits of bilingualism for the individual as well as the social and socio-economic benefits for the society as a whole. (Assignment 2)

NOTES

1. Students need to submit journal OR discussion board entries with each assignment (500 - 1000 words).
2. Students need to submit journal OR discussion board entries with each assignment (500 - 1000 words).

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

1 Attendance requirements:
There are no attendance requirements for this course. However, it is the students’ responsibility to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.

2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
To satisfactorily complete an individual assessment item a student must achieve at least 50% of the marks (Depending upon the requirements in Statement 4 below, students may not have to satisfactorily complete each assessment item to receive a passing grade in this course.)

3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
If students submit assignments after the due date without (prior) approval of the examiner then a penalty of 20% of the total marks available for the assignment will apply for each working day late.

4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
To be assured of receiving a passing grade a student must complete and submit all summative assessment items and achieve at least 50% of the available weighted marks available for the course.

5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
The final grades for students will be assigned on the basis of the aggregate of the weighted marks obtained for each of the summative assessment items in the course.

6 Examination information:
There is no examination in this course.

7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
As there are no examinations in this course, there will be no deferred or supplementary examinations.

8 University Regulations:
Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6. Assessment, and 5.10 Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene University Regulations. These regulations can be found at the URL http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm or in the printed version of the current USQ Handbook.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

1 The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must despatch the assignment to the USQ. The onus is on the student to provide proof of the despatch date, if requested by the Examiner.

2 In accordance with University Policy, the Examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances.

3 The Faculty will normally only accept assessments that have been written, typed or printed on paper-based media.

4 The Faculty will NOT accept submission of assignments by facsimile.
5 Students who do not have regular access to postal services or who are otherwise disadvantaged by these regulations may be given special consideration. They should contact the examiner of the course to negotiate such special arrangements.

6 In the event that a due date for an assignment falls on a local public holiday in their area, the due date for the assignment will be the next day. Students are to note on the assignment cover the date of the public holiday for the Examiner’s convenience.

7 Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. One of the following temporary grades may be awarded IDS (Incomplete - Deferred Examination; IDM (Incomplete Deferred Make-up); IDB (Incomplete - Both Deferred Examination and Deferred Make-up).

8 Students may be required to provide a copy of assignments submitted for assessment purposes. Such copies should be dispatched to the USQ within 24 hours of receipt of a request to do so.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

1 IMPORTANT NOTE: Working with Children: State law in Queensland requires that all adults (including university students, pre-service educators, trainers, vocational teachers, industry educators) working with children under the age of 18, in the state of Queensland*, obtain approval before commencing such work. Many education courses include a practical component (professional experience, project work, research, assessment etc.) that may require engagement with children under the age of 18. It is your responsibility to ensure that you possess a current suitability card (Blue Card) before commencing any practical components of this course. DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN ANY PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE WITH CHILDREN UNDER 18 UNLESS YOU POSSESS A CURRENT 'BLUE CARD'. For further information: http://www.childcomm.qld.gov.au/employment/bluecard/informationSheets.html. *If you are undertaking practical experience outside the state of Queensland, Australia you should check local requirements.
