RATIONALE

The study of consumer behaviour is seen as critical to understanding all marketing strategy decision making. An understanding of the psychological and sociological aspects of consumers' search and choice processes is vital to an in-depth appreciation of later subjects such as promotion management, market research, strategic marketing and others.

SYNOPSIS

This course develops in depth the basics of consumer behaviour introduced in MKT1001 Introduction to Marketing. It is based upon the premise that consumers are the key to success of any marketing effort and hence marketers need to know how and why consumers behave the way they do. The course examines in detail the environmental influences, individual differences and psychological processes which influence the consumer decision processes. Consumer trends are examined through case analysis, media study and real life application.

OBJECTIVES

On completion of this course students will be able to:

1. describe the nature and scope of consumer behaviour in marketing
2. explain the psychological, social and cultural bases of consumer behaviour and demonstrate an understanding of their relationships to each other
3. explain the situational, internal and external factors that influence consumer behaviour and demonstrate an understanding of their relationships to each other
4. analyse and critique the decision making processes of consumers in a marketing context
5. explain the similarities and differences between consumer/household behaviour and the behaviour of businesses and how marketers can analyse business-to-business buying behaviour and apply it when developing marketing strategies
6. describe, explain and discuss consumer behaviour and its associated theories and practices in relation to consumerism, the changing society, legislation and regulation and ethics
7. use knowledge of consumer behaviour to develop and recommend effective marketing strategy
8. demonstrate an ability to identify appropriate problem solving processes
9. demonstrate effective verbal, written, and electronic communication skills to an appropriate, professional business standard
10. present material in correct format including appropriate use of the Harvard referencing style for sources to an appropriate, professional business standard
11. demonstrate the ability to effectively and efficiently use USQ Library Gateway, the Internet and other electronic and hard copy resources as research tools to an appropriate, professional business standard
12. demonstrate the ability to organise themselves to competently complete the required tasks on time to an appropriate, professional business standard.

NOTES

1. The online tests assess Objectives 1 - 9, 11 and 12. The online tests must be submitted electronically by 5.00pm AEST (GMT + 10 hours) by the due date as per the detailed instructions contained within the Introductory Book. Students are required to complete each online test by the due date and time. Each online test will only be available from the USQConnect Study Desk and only for a one-week period. Students will not be permitted to attempt any online test after its respective due date regardless of circumstances. The online tests are worth a total of 15% of your final grade. Your best three (3) results will be taken as your mark for Assignment 1.

2. The report assesses Objectives 1 - 12.
3. The examination assesses Objectives 1 - 9, 11 and 12. The examination is scheduled to be held in the end-of-semester examination period. Students will be advised of the official examination date for Exam (Parts A and B) after the timetable has been finalised. The total working time for Exam (Parts A and B) is 2 hours.

IMPORTANT ASSESSMENT INFORMATION

1 Attendance requirements:
   It is the students' responsibility to attend and participate appropriately in all activities (such as lectures, tutorials, laboratories and practical work) scheduled for them, and to study all material provided to them or required to be accessed by them to maximise their chance of meeting the objectives of the course and to be informed of course-related activities and administration.

2 Requirements for students to complete each assessment item satisfactorily:
   To satisfactorily complete an individual assessment item a student must achieve at least 50% of the marks. (Depending upon the requirements in Statement 4 below, students may not have to satisfactorily complete each assessment item to receive a passing grade in this course.)

3 Penalties for late submission of required work:
   If students submit assignments after the due date without prior approval of the examiner, then a penalty of 5% of the total marks gained by the student for the assignment may apply for each working day late up to ten working days at which time a mark of zero may be recorded. All online tests must be completed by the due date with no opportunities for resubmission or resitting of the online tests.

4 Requirements for student to be awarded a passing grade in the course:
   To be assured of receiving a passing grade a student must achieve at least 50% of the total weighted marks available for the course.

5 Method used to combine assessment results to attain final grade:
   The final grades for students will be assigned on the basis of the aggregate of the weighted marks obtained for each of the summative assessment items in the course.

6 Examination information:
   This is a closed examination. Candidates are allowed to bring only writing and drawing instruments into the examination.

7 Examination period when Deferred/Supplementary examinations will be held:
   Any Deferred or Supplementary examinations for this course will be held during the next examination period.

8 University Regulations:
   Students should read USQ Regulations 5.1 Definitions, 5.6 Assessment, and 5.10 Student Academic Misconduct for further information and to avoid actions which might contravene university regulations. These regulations can be found at http://www.usq.edu.au/corporateservices/calendar/part5.htm. Students should also read the Faculty of Business Policies and Procedures which can be found at http://www.usq.edu.au/business/aboutfob.htm.
ASSESSMENT NOTES

1 Assignments: (i) The due date for an assignment is the date by which a student must submit the assignment to the USQ. (ii) Students must retain a copy of each assignment submitted for assessment. This must be produced within 24 hours if required by the examiner. (iii) The examiner may grant an extension of the due date of an assignment in extenuating circumstances. Applications for extensions should be in writing and must include supporting documentary evidence. Extensions are only granted in unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstances. The examiner shall consider all documentary evidence (including statement from a doctor, employer, counsellor or independent member of the community as appropriate) accompanying an application for extension and decide on the outcome. Length of extensions: Up to one week's extension (five working days) may be granted if a signed statement with supporting documentation is sent with the assignment, proving that an unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstance caused the delay, for example unusual and unpredictable work or family commitments. If the signed statement and supporting documentation does not show that unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstances were present for the days claimed, then the normal reduction in marks for a late assignment of 5% per working day will apply. (iv) Extensions beyond one week are not allowed unless express permission is obtained from the examiner. Extensions beyond one week are only granted in extreme circumstance because model answers may be distributed after this time. If you are likely to require an extension for a longer period than one week, you must contact the examiner for advice. In most cases, you will be required to complete an alternative make-up assignment. However, make-up assignments are only granted if you have passed all other pieces of assessment for the course. Medical extensions: In the case of an application for extension for medical reasons, the documentation should include a statement from a doctor stating: the date the medical condition began or changed; how the condition affected the student's ability to study; when it became apparent that the student could not submit the assignment. As a rule, you will be granted an extension for the number of working days covered on a medical certificate. In the case of a medical extension, you do not need to contact the examiner unless you require an extension of longer than one week. Extensions for family/personal reasons: In the case of an application for extension for family/personal reasons, the documentation should include a statement from a doctor, counsellor or independent member of the community stating: the date the student's personal circumstances began or changed; how the circumstances affected the student's ability to complete the assignment; when it became apparent that the student could not complete the assignment. In the case of an extension for family/personal reasons you must contact the examiner before the due date to discuss the reason for the extension and to negotiate the length of an extension if granted. Extensions for employment-related reasons: In the case of an application for extension for employment-related reasons, the documentation should include a statement from the student's employer stating: the date the student's employment began or the conditions of employment changed; how this prevents the student from completing the assignment. In the case of an extension for employment-related reasons you must contact the examiner before the due date to discuss the reason for the extension and to negotiate the length of an extension if granted.

2 Text books: It is the responsibility of the student to acquire a copy of the text books as soon as their enrolment in the course has been confirmed. Extensions will not be granted on the basis of the student not having copies of the texts, if the texts are available from the USQ Bookshop.

3 Course weightings: Course weightings of topics should not be interpreted as applying to the number of marks allocated to questions testing those topics in an examination paper.
4 Word count in assignments: Students must put the 'word count' for their assignment on the front page of the assignment. The word count is the number of words in the body of the assignment report and does not include the title, executive summary, list of references or appendices. Students will be penalised if they exceed the word limit.

5 Make-up work: Students who have undertaken all of the required assessments in a course but who have failed to meet some of the specified objectives of a course within the normally prescribed time may be awarded the temporary grade: IM (Incomplete - Make up). An IM grade will only be awarded when, in the opinion of the examiner, a student will be able to achieve the remaining objectives of the course after a period of non-directed personal study.

6 Deferred work: Students who, for medical, family/personal, or employment-related reasons, are unable to complete an assignment or to sit for an examination at the scheduled time may apply to defer an assessment in a course. Such a request must be accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation. One of the following temporary grades may be awarded: IDS (Incomplete - Deferred Examination); IDM (Incomplete Deferred Make-up); IDB (Incomplete - Both Deferred Examination and Deferred Make-up).
