Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

Applicants for admission to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Commerce must satisfy the requirements for admission to the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Commerce.

All students are required to satisfy the applicable English language requirements.

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, students may be admitted to an award program.

Program fees

Commonwealth supported place

A Commonwealth supported place is where the Australian Government makes a contribution towards the cost of a students' higher education and students pay a student contribution amount, which varies depending on the courses undertaken. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Schedules.

Commonwealth Supported students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called HECS-HELP.

Domestic full fee paying place

Domestic full fee paying places are funded entirely through the full fees paid by the student. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Schedule

Domestic full fee paying students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called FEE-HELP provided they meet the residency and citizenship requirements.

Australian citizens, Permanent Humanitarian Visa holders, Permanent Resident visa holders and New Zealand citizens who will be resident outside Australia for the duration of their program pay full tuition fees and are not eligible for FEE-Help.

International full fee paying place

International students pay full fees. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken and whether they are studied on-campus, via distance education/online. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Schedules.

Major studies

Arts studies

The Arts component shall comprise:

- at least one seven course discipline based major from the majors available under the Bachelor of Arts with at least two units at third year level
- a four course /minor study chosen from Arts majors and minors
- three courses of electives from Arts courses, preferably selected from the major or minor study.

Commerce studies

The commerce component will comprise eight units from the Accounting, Business Law, Economics, Finance or General Commerce majors.

Students are able to enrol in any offered mode of a course (on-campus, external or online), regardless of the program mode of study they enrolled in.

- Student enrolment patterns will vary according to choice of Commerce major but all students should enrol in ACC1101 Accounting for Decision-Making in Semester 1, CIS1000 Information Systems Concepts and CMS1000 Communication and Scholarship in Semester 2.
- The Arts major is usually started in Semester 1 of first year and continued in Semester 2 of first year while the Arts minor study is usually started in Semester 1 of second year.
- The first course of the selected Commerce major is usually taken in Semester 2 of first year.
- Students will usually also take at least one and preferably two of the Commerce core courses in Semester 1 of first year e.g. ACC1101 Accounting for Decision-Making and MGT1000 Organisational Behaviour.

Note for continuing students

The program structure has been modified from 33 courses to 32 courses with a reduced weighting on the Commerce major and an increased weighting on the Arts component. Students may elect to follow either pattern subject to approval of the Faculty of Business, Education, Law and Arts.
