

Children in the Library

In Accordance with the USQ Policy on Children on Campus (HR Policy and Procedure Manual C7). The Library advises that children are welcome in the Library, subject to the following conditions:

- Children under high school age must be directly supervised by an adult at all times - children are not permitted to wander the Library alone.
- Supervising adults are responsible for the behaviour of children in their care and must ensure that children in their care do not inconvenience or disrupt employees or other Library users, who may come to the Library seeking a quiet study environment.
- Children under high school age must not be left alone in the Library Collections, as they may injure themselves or resources.
- Children are not permitted to use computers or AV equipment.

Library staff are not responsible for the safety or security of unsupervised children. Library staff have the authority to direct that children leave the Library if the above conditions are not adhered to. Security will be notified if a parent or guardian cannot be located.
